The very first verse the students learn at Bradford Academy is Proverbs 1:7, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, but fools despise wisdom and instruction." The reason we start with that verse is that the goal of our school is to help children to be wise. This verse tells us what the principal and foundation part of wisdom is. That Proverbs gets all our children started in the right direction.

We do not just start with the Proverbs but will have the students visit that book often throughout the years. Chapter one tells us the purpose of the book including, "...To give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion—A wise man will hear and increase learning." During our times together in Forum I often take the children to Proverbs and contrast wise and foolish living. On Monday I spoke to the children about the verses that immediately follow Prov. 1:7, "My son, hear the instruction of your father, and do not forsake the law of your mother; For they will be a graceful ornament on your head, and chains about your neck." Here, the child is reminded that obedience to one's parents brings blessing. The Proverbs are particularly helpful in the training of children. Anyone who wants to live a wise and profitable life and teach their children to do the same would do very well to visit the Proverbs often. The book is unique in its short pithy exhortations to wise living and is particularly directed at children. (See how often the writer pleads with his son; e.g. see Prov. 1:8,10,15.) They ought to be mentioned often in instruction and used frequently for correction and training in righteousness.

We all need wisdom in parenting and the Proverbs is a great place to go. A tool that I have found particularly useful is a topical arrangement of the Proverbs such as Wisdom for Today's Issues (S. Voorwinde) and Proverbs for Parenting (B. Decker). If you want to dig deeper into the material, I know of no better commentary than the Banner of Truth Commentary by Charles Bridges. Next time you are searching for what to say to your child, look to the Proverbs. Peace and grace.

Proverbs that we have memorized over the years...

Kindergarten

- 1:7 ...the fear of the Lord...
- 10:19 ...In the multitude of words ... he who restrains his lips is wise.
- 14:34 ...Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

1st Grade

- 12:15 ...a fool is right in his own eyes, But he who heeds counsel is wise.
- 2:6,7 ...For the Lord gives wisdom...
- 27:2 ...Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth...

2nd Grade

- 26:18-21 ...Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death, is the man who deceives his neighbor, and says, "I was only joking!..."
- 15:33 ...before honor is humility.
- 26:4,5 ...Do not answer a fool according to his folly...
- 26:17 ...He who ... meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who takes a dog by the ears.
- 25:6-28 A LOT in this section; go and read it.

3rd Grade

- 23:22-26 ...Buy the truth, and do not sell it, Also wisdom and instruction and understanding...
- 24:27 ...Prepare your outside work, make it fit for yourself in the field; and afterward build your house.

5th grade

- 15:16-17 Better is a little with the fear of the LORD, Than great treasure with trouble. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, Than a fatted calf with hatred.
